good dogma

the original aromatherapy for your dog

since 1996

the tail of good dogma

was inspired by Mo, a beautiful black Labrador.

Not satisfied with ordinary grooming products because of the many unpronounceable ingredients and often unpleasant smell, we set out to create a 100% natural product that would make her the best smelling pooch on the planet. Using the ancient art of aromatherapy, months of testing on family, friends and Mo, good dogma was born. These world renowned products are made in small batches and hand packaged with love. Both you and your dog will benefit from the properties provided to you by good dogma and Mother Nature.

Currently, good dogma products are sold nationwide, In Canada, Japan and Europe in higher end retail locations. Good Dogma has been featured in INC. Magazine, Your Company, The Washington Post, New Product News, Dog World, Groom and Board Magazine, Paper City, Paper, New Age, Dog Nose News, Daily Candy and most recently In-Style Magazine. Groom and Board Magazine ranked good dogma in the "Top 25 products of the year 2000".
